

Proposed course dates 24/25

2024

March/Early April 2024 – this is to be a hybrid course, i.e. Theory days to be done online as evening 3-hour sessions and the final 2 practical days to be at either Durham or Tyne.

17th/18th August and 23rd and 24th August for the next one. Which may be a hybrid course.

2025

January 2025 dates 11th/12th January and 25th/26th January.

August course will be 2nd/3rd August and 23rd and 24th August 2025

Assessors

Still struggling to get 5 assessed at Hexham. Awaiting Debbie Connelly being reassessed as an assessor. March/April course Eddie is not tutoring in order he can also assess. I have also been assessing.

1st Aid Courses

Plan to arrange these in the following months:-

February/March/May/July/September/November.

To mop up people who still need to do their 1st aid and people who will need to have their 1st aid for a course.

Coach Development Opportunities

I have attached a recent report which was presented to the NCC (National Coaching Committee) by the Lead Team.

Please also see the link to British Rowing website on Coach Development Opportunities, however this is now out of date
<https://www.britishrowing.org/knowledge/courses-qualifications/coach-development/>

Coaching Week 2024

This is now scheduled for w/c 16th September so please pop it in your diary. The theme is the Olympic and Paralympic Values.

British Rowing Qualification/Review Group.

Whilst this is in the early stages, the 1st online meeting has not taken place, it is to discuss what the Level 1 will look like and cost. I will update the group as we go.

Pathways Directorate/Monthly online meeting.

These are led by Nathaniel Reilly-O'Donnell and the group comprises of B.R. Staff, NCC members. I have asked if the slides and recordings of this group can be shared with NRC.

The next National Coaching Committee Meeting is due to be held the 3rd week in February, date to be confirmed as yet.