

EQUALITY & HUMAN RIGHTS IN SPORT and Physical Activity

FREE PRACTITIONER LED BRIEFING WORKSHOPS for individuals and organisations working in the field of Sport and Physical Activity promotion, development, governance, coaching and management.

These 3 hour workshops will identify the key issues for practitioners in meeting their requirement in equality and human rights in sport, identifying barriers to participation experienced by all equality strands and the development of tailored action plans for change.

The workshops are FREE and the dates and venues are set out below. It is important to note that a maximum of 40 places are available at each workshop so please book early to secure your place.

North East Region Workshop

Date: Thursday 11th December

Time: 10.00am – 1.00pm

Venue: The Parks Sports Centre, Howdon Road, Northshields, Tyne and Wear, NE29 6TL

Bookings can be made by email to: lita@ottawaystrategic.co.uk

Confirmation of bookings and venue details will be provided by return.

For further information, please contact: Martin King at Ottaway Strategic Management on: 07985441304 or martin@ottawaystrategic.co.uk

The workshops are supported with a FREE GUIDE
- Equality and Human Rights in Sport and Physical Activity.

supported with funding from the EHRC

Promoting ethnic diversity across sport & physical activity